Location

The property is situated in the delightful village of Derrington, just a short drive from Stafford town centre and is situated in the catchment for Cooper Perry Primary School, which is classed as good. Derrington has local amenities which include a Village Hall with Post Office facilities and a coffee shop, there is also a Social Club and Derrington Millennium Green is a large open space adjacent to the village of Derrington. The Green is managed by a group of Trustees on behalf of the villagers. The site is maintained by an enthusiastic group of volunteers and draws its funding from voluntary donations from the 'friends' of Derrington Millennium Green. The aim of the Green is to provide a large open space for recreation and somewhere to enjoy nature. The site has become a haven for rare flora and fauna and has been awarded a 'Site of Biological Importance' (SBI)
