Tressillian Road, SE4

Spread across the raised and lower ground floors of a handsome Victorian building the property offers a wealth of original character whilst incorporating modern additions.

The private entrance immediately introduces you to the original wood flooring and period character, the hallway then leads to the large reception room with tall ceilings, sash windows and a beautiful working fireplace and generous kitchen with a delightful extension overlooking the mature private garden.

The lower level offers the large principle suite with bespoke shelving and large sash window and ensuite shower room. The second bedroom is also generous with access out onto the back patio and a third bedroom gives calming views into the well maintained garden. The fourth bedroom, currently a secluded home office, also overlooks the garden.
