Property Summary

Introducing a large four-bedroom (plus study) detached Georgian house located in highly sought-after Portobello. This B-listed home (circa 1826) offers a wealth of accommodation with lots of period features. It includes two reception rooms, three bathrooms, and has the unique feature of two kitchens. It also enjoys secure private parking and an expansive rear garden. Whilst the property requires complete refurbishment, it remains an outstanding prospect with an abundance of potential to become a dream family home in a highly desirable setting. It also presents an excellent opportunity to add significant value to the property.

Please note, the property is to be sold as seen.
