Location

The premises are situated in the heart of Long Melford's Hall Street, which is the main thoroughfare through the village. Immediately adjacent to The Bank House is the Long Melford Ex-Service & Social Club, and JD Creative Hair Salon. Other nearby occupiers include St Nicholas Hospice Care Boutique opposite, and a variety of independent shops including bakers, butchers, cafes, restaurants, and antique shops.

Long Melford is an important retail and tourist centre, renowned for its many fine buildings, including Melford Hall, Kentwell Hall and the Holy Trinity Church. There is extensive unrestricted parking in Hall Street, in addition to two village carparks.

The resident population of Long Melford is around 4,000 and numbers are greatly increased by a large influx of tourists throughout the year. The village is 3 miles north of Sudbury, 11 miles south of Bury St Edmunds and around 18 miles from Colchester.
