Kedington

Kedington is a conveniently positioned, attractive and well served Suffolk village. The beautiful 14th century Grade I Listed Church of St Peter and St Paul. Suffolk House was once home to the celebrated Victorian poet/playwright Herman Merivale. The village has excellent facilities including local supermarket open long hours with newspaper delivery service available. Award winning butchers, superb Chinese with takeaway/delivery. Two public houses, horse riding facilities, numerous public amenity meadows & river walks in this child & dog friendly village, with a very large recreation ground. Well renowned primary school with 2 prep schools at nearby Barnidiston & Stoke By Clare. Newmarket, Bury St Edmunds, Saffron Walden & Cambridge are approximately 30 minutes away, with the University city of Cambridge approximately 20 miles away. There are mainline rail stations to London at Audley End (around 16 miles), Whittlesford Parkway, Shelford and Cambridge. London Stansted airport is around 30 miles away.

The Property

This delightful Grade II Listed cottage is thought to date back to the early 17th Century and retains many original period features. The generous sitting room offers a charming view through twin Georgian windows at the front and boasts an open fireplace with a cupboard beside it. The kitchen has been updated with a selection of cream units and spaces for appliances where not built-in. The bathroom is spacious and includes a WC, wash basin, and a bath with a shower overhead, along with a built-in cupboard under the stairs. A rear lobby features oak stairs leading to the first floor and provides access to the outside through an external door at the back.

On the upper floor, you will find two double bedrooms, one of which is a particularly roomy master bedroom featuring stripped wooden flooring and a large walk-in cupboard. The expansive rear garden is accessed via a shared pedestrian path. It boasts a patio area ideal for relaxation, while the remainder of the garden is laid to lawn.
