'A detached bungalow in a quiet, residential area that enjoys a private yet manageable rear garden!' This two bedroom detached bungalow built approximately around the late 1990's by local reputable builders Flower & Hayes is set in a slightly elevated position and is presented in tidy order throughout. Upon entering the property there is an entrance lobby leading into a hallway with doors to all rooms. The lounge is light and bright with a gas fire and there is a generous size kitchen/dining room to the front. The property enjoys two bedrooms which are both comfortable doubles with the main bedroom benefitting from an en suite shower room and bedroom two having French doors to the garden. The property also has had its bathroom adapted to a shower room for ease. GCH and double glazing. This excellent property is offered for sale with no onward chain. Externally the property has a manageable sloped pathway leading to the front door and there is a meter/store cupboard along side the front door. At the rear there is a lovely, private garden with patio, lawn and mature beds to the surrounds. Beneath the property is a good size garage and driveway parking to the front. Sunnymead is a well kept development on the fringe of the town and would suit a variety of purchasers. For a healthy range of services and amenities, Midsomer Norton town centre is around 5 minutes drive with Tesco superstore even closer for ease and public transport services are also easily accessible which connect to Bath, Bristol and Wells. Just outside the development there is access to the greenway for rural walks.
