IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd be stepping into a bright, one bedroom apartment that offers a rare sense of space and style on one effortlessly laid-out floor. The generous 240 square foot living and open plan kitchen area is cleverly zoned to give you distinct spaces for relaxing, dining, and unwinding – all bathed in natural light from large, dual-aspect windows offering treetop views.

To one side, your sleeping area is subtly tucked away, easily accommodating a double bed with room to spare. The living space opens up beautifully, perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying a quiet night in.

The open plan kitchen is a sleek, modern affair with glossy cabinetry, integrated oven and thoughtfully arranged storage to keep everything neatly out of sight. Your principal bedroom is a spacious double of 125 square feet. The bathroom is finished in contemporary white tiling with a full-size tub and overhead shower.

Your new local, The Duke Wanstead, is only an eight minute walk from your new home. This friendly gastropub serves hearty Sunday roasts, has a sheltered outdoor seating area and was voted one of Time Out's favourite pubs in 2016. More nightlife, restaurants and cafes can be found just a few minutes further along the High Street. We'd particularly recommend Bare Brew for tasty craft beers, and Provender for exquisite, authentic French cuisine.

WHAT ELSE?

- The Snaresbrook Road entrance to Leyton Flats is a fourteen minute walk away. From here, you can wander around Eagle Pond and explore your way across to Hollow Ponds, where there are row boats for hire and a cosy lakeside diner.
- A seven minute stroll brings you to Ark Fish Restaurant, where you can dine on sumptuous plates made with fresh 'catch of the day' fish from Billingsgate Market.
- It's hard to overstate how sumptuous your landmark new building is, with copious original moulding, handsome red brick and elegant gables.
