

12 Montpelier Terrace

Brighton, BN1 3DF

Guide price £1,500,000

A truly stunning Grade 2 listed period villa of immense charm and character affording beautifully appointed and expansive living space over four floors, while occupying a highly sought after prime central location in the heart of the conservation area, close to all City centre amenities.

This fine canopied Villa, set behind ornate wrought iron railings is so convenient and central to all the City has to offer, exceptionally accessible to Western Road shopping throughfare, the seafront, Seven Dials and Brighton mainline station. The property has been extensively and tastefully refurbished in recent years, to an exceptionally high standard, with care taken to preserve the original integrity and character, creating a light, comfortable and welcoming home with a nod towards contemporary styling and modern living. The property is offered for sale in pristine decorative condition throughout and features on the ground floor include a spacious reception hallway with elegant staircase serving the first and lower floors, together with an impressive main drawing/dining room with fine exposed floors and tall ceilings and retained period detail. On the lower floor there is a fabulous large kitchen, which is superbly appointed with polished concrete floors, utility area and a further cosy family/tv room off. On the first floor there is an impressive, large split level landing with huge ornate ceiling glass light and four comfortable and beautifully decorated bedrooms with the second floor serving as excellent guest suite options. Outside of this fine home are pleasant private decked gardens, laid with a view to ease of maintenance, for relaxation and external dining. There is no chain involved with the sale of this particular property and acquisition will be straightforward and therefore an early viewing is very highly recommended by the owner's Sole agents
