PROPERTY

The Bulls Head is predominantly a two-storey detached brick-built property with a slate roof.

The internal trade area is largely open plan in nature and is presented in good order throughout having been subject to refurbishment in recent years. A mixture of fixed & loose seating caters to c. 45 covers but this could be increased with more loose seating and the removal of the pool table. To the rear of the pub is a large enclosed trade patio and garden, together with smoking shelter/open sided events barn. This area comfortably caters to a further c. 40+ covers.

Supporting these areas is a large ground floor cellar, service yard, accessible, male & female WC's, plus a relatively small commercial trade kitchen capable of extending.

The generous private accommodation is all situated at first-floor level and consists of three bedrooms (two single & one double), lounge and bathroom.

There is ample on-street spaces available within immediate walking distance. There is a right of access for deliveries to the rear of the pub via Shortsands Yard.

PLANNING

The property is not listed but does fall within a Conservation Area. Prospective purchases are advised to contact the local authority Huntingdonshire District Council.
