Downstairs, a large family dining kitchen is perfect for entertaining, with additional storage. The upper floors offer six well-sized bedrooms, stylish bathrooms, and further storage options — ideal for modern family life.

The house is surrounded by established gardens on three sides, providing plenty of outdoor space and privacy. A sweeping driveway with turning circle ensures ample parking. Most notably, the sizeable extra land included — held under a separate title — offers fantastic potential for future development (subject to planning), making this a smart investment as well as a beautiful home.

Keighley provides a great mix of green space, excellent local schools, Airedale General Hospital, and easy transport links. Local highlights include Cliffe Castle Park and East Riddlesden Hall.
