Guide Price £500,000

Nestled at the end of a quiet crescent and backing onto picturesque heather-covered hills, this beautifully presented three-bedroom detached bungalow offers the perfect balance of space, comfort and practicality. Occupying a generous plot with landscaped gardens and a gated driveway, it has been a much-loved family home for over 20 years and is now ready for a new chapter.

Inside, the accommodation is thoughtfully laid out across one level. A welcoming entrance hall leads to a modern family dining kitchen — the hub of the home, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The spacious living room flows into a formal dining area, while a cosy snug provides a private retreat. From the snug, you can access the largest of the two conservatories, creating a versatile suite that could work perfectly as a self-contained space for an elderly relative, a teenager seeking more independence, or even as a dedicated home office. A second conservatory offers further flexibility, making it easy to adapt the home to suit changing family needs.

There are three generously sized double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefitting from its own en-suite shower room, alongside a well-appointed family bathroom. The property has been lovingly maintained and benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout, offering ready-to-move-into accommodation.

Externally, the gardens are a true highlight. Sweeping around the property, they feature established lawns, mature trees and colourful shrubs, providing both beauty and privacy. To the rear, the garden enjoys a natural backdrop of heather-clad hills, while a paved patio offers an ideal setting for summer dining and barbecues. A large gated tarmac driveway provides ample parking for multiple vehicles.

Rarely does a bungalow of this size come to market in Denholme. With versatile living space and attractive gardens, it will appeal to families and buyers seeking single-level accommodation.
