All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

A charming two bedroom cottage which is situated in this prime Conservation area just a stone's throw away from the vibrant City centre and walking distance to the station. The ground floor accommodation includes a well proportioned lounge/dining area with feature log burning fireplace and a dining area with window overlooking the courtyard style garden. The modern kitchen is fitted with modern white wall and base units. Upstairs are two good sized bedrooms and a stylish bathroom. A pull down ladder gives access to the loft space. Outside the property features a private south facing courtyard style garden. Permit parking for the property is available with a residents car park opposite. The property sits amongst similar period properties on a sought after conservation area, just off Holywell Hill. Albert Street is close to the beautiful open spaces of Verulamium Park and St. Albans Cathedral. The mainline train station linking St. Albans to London, St Pancras is only a short distance away.
