Nestled on a historic railway crossing, this beautifully presented three-bedroom semi-detached cottage, originally the old station house, offers a unique blend of character, charm, and modern convenience. Dating back to the 1880s, the property boasts a spacious main house alongside a one-bedroom, one-bathroom annex, currently operating as a successful holiday let.

Stepping inside the main home, you'll find a large and inviting living room with log burner and built-in bookshelf, a light-filled sunroom with garden views, and a modern kitchen/diner, ideal for entertaining. A practical laundry room with WC completes the ground floor. Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom provide comfortable and stylish accommodation, with the first floor offering beautiful sea and field views.

Outside, the mature and beautifully maintained gardens offer a tranquil retreat, enjoying exceptional privacy. The property also benefits from off-road parking and solar panels, making it both practical and energy-efficient.

Situated between the coastal town of Filey and the charming village of Hunmanby, this home offers the best of both worlds—stunning coastal and countryside walks while being just a short drive from ample local amenities.

A rare opportunity to own a piece of history with modern comforts and excellent income potential—viewing is highly recommended!
