32 South Myrescroft,
Ancrum, TD8 6XE

32 South Myrescroft is a well-proportioned, three-bedroom semi-detached home set within the highly desirable village of Ancrum, just a short drive from Jedburgh. Offering spacious accommodation, neutral décor, and a peaceful residential setting, this property presents an ideal opportunity for families, first-time buyers, or those looking to relocate to a vibrant village community.

The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hallway, a generously sized lounge, a dining kitchen with ample space for family meals, and a recently modernised shower room. Upstairs, the property boasts three well-proportioned double bedrooms, each benefitting from built-in storage, providing practical and comfortable living space.

Externally, 32 South Myrescroft enjoys private, enclosed gardens to the front—primarily laid to patio for low-maintenance living—as well as side and rear gardens featuring a mix of lawn, patio, and stone chips. The rear garden, in particular, benefits from spectacular open views over the surrounding countryside, offering a peaceful and picturesque outlook. On-street parking is available nearby.

With modern double glazing, a recently upgraded shower room, and its location within the catchment area for both primary and secondary education, this property offers excellent value in a desirable setting. Viewings are highly recommended to fully appreciate what this home has to offer.
