We are delighted to present this exceptionally unique weaver's cottage to the market. Nestled within stunning gardens and situated in an enviable rural location, this property offers unparalleled views of the surrounding countryside. Originally granted a Grade II listing in the 1970s, the cottage exudes historical charm and character while providing an exciting opportunity for modernisation. This property is perfect for those looking to create a warm and inviting home.

Spanning three floors, the cottage features a thoughtfully designed layout. The ground floor comprises a welcoming front porch and entrance hall, which lead into the dining room and kitchen. Adjacent to the kitchen is a spacious utility room and a separate WC. The ground floor also includes an additional front stable door, enhancing the cottage's rustic charm.

The first floor boasts a large living room, complete with a feature weaver's windows offering breathtaking views. This floor also includes a family bathroom and a landing area. Ascending to the second floor, you will find two generously sized double bedrooms. The master bedroom is fully fitted with built-in wardrobes, a dressing table, and drawers, providing ample storage space.

The property's outdoor space is equally enchanting. A large garden to the side of the cottage features winding pathways that lead to secluded, hidden areas, perfect for a peaceful retreat. Although the garden, like the house, requires some attention, it retains its special allure and potential for transformation.

At the end of the property's boundary lies a detached garage with its own driveway, adding to the convenience and appeal of this remarkable home.

This weaver's cottage represents a unique blend of historical significance and potential for contemporary living, making it a truly special opportunity for discerning buyers.
