Lorne House, Shortthorn Road, Stratton Strawless, Norfolk, NR10 5NT

An incredible opportunity to acquire a substantial family home set on a plot of approximately thirteen acres of land, suitable for a variety of usages including commercial, residential or industrial development (All subject to the usual planning permission).

Located almost midway between Aylsham and Norwich, the property benefit from local amenities that include the Marsham Arms Restaurant, The Fox and village hall at Hevingham and the nearby Broadland Country Park; a one-hundred-and-forty-acre mosaic of heath, woodland and marshy grassland, perfect for walkers, horse riders and cyclists to explore.

Lorne House is approached through ornate metal gates onto a brick weave driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to a double garage. To the front and side of the property extensive lawn gardens are bordered by mature trees. A paved terrace, ideal for alfresco dining with friends and family, wraps around the rear of the property and overlooks distant lawn and woodland views.
