The property occupies a pleasant no-through road position, just a short walk from the railway station and thriving village centre. The current owners have transformed the property with a programme of expansion and improvement resulting in extremely well-presented and planned accommodation. The property further benefits from off-road parking and a large, private rear garden measuring approximately 150ft in length.

In brief, the accommodation comprises, an entrance porch leading to a welcoming reception hall with stairs rising to the first floor accommodation, storage cupboard under and a bathroom with vaulted ceiling just off. The bay-windowed sitting room boasts a feature fireplace with an inset cast-iron, wood-burning stove and opens to the dining room, which in turn opens to a study area with a vaulted ceiling. Beyond the study area is a generous conservatory extension with oak flooring and French doors to the garden. The kitchen is fitted with attractive, modern cabinetry, ample fitted working surfaces with a four-ring ceramic hob, double oven, extractor and space for a fridge-freezer and dishwasher. The utility room has a vaulted ceiling with skylights, matching cabinetry and worksurfaces with a butler sink, space for a washing machine and tumble dryer, and a wall-mounted, gas-fired central heating boiler.

Upstairs off the half-galleried landing, are three good-sized bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobe cupboards and a refitted luxury shower room.

Outside, the front garden has been designed with ease-of-maintenance in mind and laid mainly to shingle and provides off-road parking for up to three cars. Gated access leads to the rear garden, which is laid mainly to lawn with flower and shrub borders and beds including a pretty rose garden, a paved patio, a raised decked terrace, timber shed and garden store, and all is enclosed by fencing and enjoys good levels of privacy.
