This individual detached family residence occupies a fine centre of village position, close to All Saints Church and just a short walk from Great Shelford's many amenities. The property is set back from the road and screened by attractive walling with mature and private gardens and grounds which extend to a third of an acre. The property was built by the current owner's family in 1954 and then enlarged again in the 1970's resulting in well planned and spacious accommodation. The property offers great scope for further enlargement and modernisation or perhaps even replacement subject to the relevant planning consents.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming reception hall with stairs to first floor accommodation and a cloakroom/WC just off. There are three reception rooms and an office. These include a dining room with an open fireplace, a living room with an open fireplace and this room opens to a sitting room which enjoys views over the garden. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of purpose-built storage cupboards, ample fitted working surfaces with inset sink unit with drainer, five ring gas hob, double oven, space for a fridge/freezer and dishwasher. Off the rear lobby is a utility room which opens to a workshop and a garage store.

Upstairs, off the landing are five bedrooms, four of these are double bedrooms and one single bedroom and all of the bedrooms have fitted wardrobe cupboards. There is a four piece family bathroom, a small shower room and a separate WC.

Outside, the property is set back and screened from the road by walling, laid mainly to lawn with a gravel driveway providing parking for several vehicles and leading to the car port with garage storage beyond. Gated access leads to the rear garden which measures in excess of 200 feet in length, is laid mainly to well maintained lawns with flower and shrub borders, a paved patio, a vegetable and herb garden and all enjoys good levels of privacy.
