The property enjoys a tranquil cul-de-sac position just a short walk from the primary school and village amenities. The current owner has lived there for over 40 years and has greatly improved and enlarged the home in this time, resulting in extremely spacious and well planned living accommodation.

The kitchen/breakfast room and utility room have been refitted with a Magnet kitchen boasting attractive cabinetry including pull-out larders, deep pan drawers and corner carousel units plus a range of integrated appliances including Neff gas hob, oven, extractor, full height fridge freezer and a dishwasher. Opening off from the kitchen is the utility area with matching cabinetry and granite surfaces, door to the side of the property and plumbing for washing machine and space for a tumble dryer. There are French doors out to the garden and an archway through to the dining room. The sitting room boasts a dual aspect and has a feature gas coal effect fire.

Upstairs there are four good size bedrooms, bedroom one and two both with recently refitted mirror fronted wardrobe cupboards and a family bathroom.

Outside the front garden is laid mainly to lawn and there is off-road parking for several cars and a double length garage with up and over door, power and light connected. The rear garden enjoys a sunny south-facing orientation and has been landscaped with ease of maintenance in mind, laid mainly to attractive paviour and slate chipping, a pleasant area to enjoy alfresco dining and a large timber shed.

Location

Duxford is a picturesque village established around the churches of St Peter's and St John's, set in some of the finest South Cambridgeshire countryside. It has become an important and growing community with the advantage of an excellent range of local facilities. A primary school serves the area and a regular bus route runs to Saffron Walden and the University City of Cambridge.

In addition, the nearby village of Sawston includes a highly regarded village college, banks, two supermarkets and recreational facilities. Renowned for the Imperial War Museum, to which residents are eligible for free access, Duxford has become a desirable locality for the commuter with the M11 junction and Whittlesford Parkway railway station both just over a mile away. The latter offers a convenient and regular service to London Liverpool Street. Royston is a short drive away and has a fast rail service to London King's Cross.
