This nicely positioned semi-detached house forms part of a select development, built in 2009 and set in established well-maintained gardens. The property is situated half a mile from Woollards Lane and Shelford Station, as well as being adjacent to the DNA cycleway to Addenbrooke's Hospital and city centre.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall with space for coats and footwear, stairs leading to the first-floor and access to a useful cloakroom W.C. The kitchen has been fitted with a modern range of units; integrated appliances include a washing machine, fridge/freezer, single oven and electric hob with extractor over. There is a bright sitting/dining room with an under-stairs storage cupboard and double doors leading to a brick built conservatory with underfloor heating and opening out the private rear garden.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms, bedroom one includes built-in wardrobes. The bathroom has been fitted with a modern white three-piece suite including a shower over the bath, complemented by attractive part-tiled walls and inset spotlights.

Outside, the property is set back behind an open-plan front garden, stocked with an array of mature shrubs and hedgerows. There is allocated parking to the side of the property and a side gate leading to the south-west facing garden which offers a superb degree of privacy. The development has a children's play area and well-tended communal grounds.
