The accommodation comprises a generous reception hall with a door to No 53 and another door to No 51. There is a large sitting/dining room with feature fireplace and patio doors out to the garden. The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with attractive cabinetry, ample fitted working surfaces with double sink unit, induction hob, double oven, extractor and space for a dishwasher and fridge/freezer and opening to a very generous dining area. Just off is a handy utility room with cloakroom/ WC just off. There are three good sized double bedrooms and a study/fourth bedroom, a family bathroom and a separate WC.

Number 51 comprises a recently constructed entrance porch to a sitting room, a well equipped kitchen/dining room, two good sized bedrooms and a re-fitted bathroom.

Outside, there is a driveway, providing parking for at least three cars and leads to the double garage with up and over door, power and light connected. The gardens and grounds extend to 0.25 acres with enclosed lawns to both 51 and 53. There is a generous paved patio, a fishpond and a large bespoke workshop/barn. Number 51 also boasts a brick-built shed. All is enclosed by fencing and enjoys excellent levels of privacy and seclusion.

Location

Thriplow is justifiably one of South Cambridgeshire's most eagerly sought after villages located in a delightfully rural environment surrounded by open undulating countryside yet only 8 miles south of Cambridge and 6 miles north of Royston. The village is home to a highly regarded primary school and pre-school, pub and shop and hosts the Thriplow Daffodil Weekend annually. The elevated church, village green and cricket pitch make Thriplow a wonderfully picturesque place to live.
