The development is less than a 15 minute drive away from Birmingham Airport and the NEC and is close to the M42 which leads to other motorways

Tom Wilson, who died in December 2018, was a headteacher at Coleshill Grammar School from 1956 to 1982. A former RAF officer, during World War Two he was involved in a daring escape from a German prison camp, which was made famous by the movie The Wooden Horse. Mr Wilson played his violin to mask the sounds of his comrades as they dug an escape tunnel, what a great opportunity to own such a unique property.
