

The Hollies Pinfold Lane, Adlingfleet
DN14 8HB
£475,000

Unexpectedly back on the market due to a collapsed chain

The Hollies sits on a beautiful double plot (Approx. 0.5 Acres) with huge potential to have a second dwelling (planning now lapsed). Tucked away on a street of a quaint, picturesque village with a warm feeling of community and history - Referenced in the Domesday book!

This home blends a beautiful feeling of modern design with a classic balance of country style living. The attention to detail in this home is remarkable and the highest quality materials have been used throughout. Solid oak flooring to the ground floor, granite kitchen worktops, quartz finishes to the bathroom, all windows & doors replaced in 2017 and the perfect addition of a vaulted ceiling garden room extension (2018) boasting a full glass wall window overlooking the rear garden and fields beyond.

A beautiful combination of open plan living spaces (Sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room and garden room) flow together effortlessly but still allow a sense of separation in each space with it's thoughtful design. A separate reception room sits to the front right of the home with a utility and WC connecting to the kitchen.

Outside Gardens & Parking

Sitting on a beautiful spacious plot (Approx.1/2acre) originally two detached building plots (now lapsed) would be perfect for a family wanting to build an annex for generational living or a separate second detached property (subject to planning)

The gardens have a number of fruit trees (Apple, pear, cherry, plum, blackberry & gooseberry) There is a summer house with electric, detached brick built garage, wooden garage space (6m x 5.5m) and a beautiful social space with pavilion.

The gardens are mainly laid to lawn and wrap around the home with rear field views and multiple social/relaxation areas. A large driveway leading from the front to the rear of the property provides ample parking for numerous vehicles.

Area & Travel Links

The village of Adlingfleet is almost equidistant from Goole and Scunthorpe. It's a delightful rural location, with a medieval church and a long history stretching back to before the Domesday Book. The surrounding district includes several areas of significance for wildlife, such as RSPB Blacktoft Sands. By road, Goole is a 9 mile / 20 minute drive away. There you can find a good selection of shops, supermarkets and restaurants. Scunthorpe is just over 12 miles away, and approximately 35 minutes by road via the bridge over the River Trent at Keadby, and Scunthorpe is also well-served with local amenities. The nearest railway station is Goole, from where you can connect to mainline services at Doncaster, or travel east to Hull. The closest motorway access is also at Goole, with the M62 and thence the rest of the motorway network. Doncaster is about 45 minutes' drive away by car, and Hull and Lincoln are both about an hour. Humberside international airport is near Kirmington, 30 miles away by road.
