Sunrise Cottage presents a rare opportunity to own one of Padstow's iconic Old Town properties. A red post box nestles into the Cornish stone and slate exterior, which in turn contrasts wonderfully with the white render on the upper half of this gorgeous cottage. A quintessential fisherman's cottage, character features abound once inside. The generous living area has beautiful wooden floorboards and an attractive, white-beamed ceiling, which envelop the room with a feeling of warmth. Deep-set sash windows with slate sills add to the cocooning nature of this lovely space and create a wonderfully relaxing feel. A few steps lead up to a modern galley kitchen with large wood-framed windows which fill the room with light. A back door leads to a compact rear courtyard, framed by a beautiful Cornish stone wall which gives access to Fentonluna Lane and St Saviours Lane. There is roadside parking available on Fentonluna Lane.

Back in the living room, stairs rise to the upper floor, where the period features continue. Wooden doors give access to a modern, tiled bathroom with both bath and shower and a spacious master bedroom. This lovely room features a large bay window which gives a bird's eye view through the streets of Padstow to the Camel Estuary beyond, as well as a further two windows with views to the Deer Park.

Currently a very successful holiday let, this property is being sold as a going concern with all furniture and white goods included.
