This terraced Grade II listed character cottage is situated just moments from the harbour and town centre within the conservation area of the old town. Directly opposite is a separate yard area and storage unit, and a small courtyard sits to the rear of the property.

The accommodation is laid over two floors and comprises of separate sitting and dining rooms, a galley kitchen, two double bedrooms and spacious bathroom. Well-presented throughout with plenty of original features including beamed ceilings, sash windows, Cornish stone fireplaces and deep window seats. The rooms are well proportioned, light and bright.

A two-minute walk will bring you to the historic harbour and bustling town, which has year-round appeal due in part to its reputation as a well-respected foodie destination. Padstow is home to a large selection of eateries, including Rick Steins flagship restaurant, The Seafood Restaurant as well as Paul Ainsworth's highly regarded No. 6 and the always buzzing Prawn on The Lawn.

Popular with activities enthusiasts, the area has built a solid reputation in the world of sport as home to several of the best surfing beaches in the UK, as well as two championship golf courses and the famed Southwest Coast Path, which provides access to stunning scenery along the area's dramatic coastline. 14 Cross Street offers an excellent investment opportunity with excellent holiday letting potential in this sought after part of Cornwall.
