The Cottage and Location

Tucked away in the rural hamlet of Trevellas, this charming south-facing cottage offers easy access to the popular north coastal town of Perranporth and the village of St. Agnes. Ideal for family living, this character property features versatile accommodation, including four bedrooms, with the option to use the ground floor bedroom as a home office if desired.

The inviting lounge boasts a beamed ceiling and a cozy recessed wood-burning stove, while the conservatory at the front provides a delightful view of the enclosed garden. The separate dining room leads to a well-equipped kitchen, and the bathroom is conveniently located on the ground floor. The cottage benefits from oil-fired central heating and double glazing.

The property is surrounded by well-maintained gardens at both the front and rear, offering ample outdoor space. Additionally, there is plenty of parking with its two driveways - one at the front of the cottage and one at the rear. There is also a detached garage that has easy access from the main road and a pedestrian door to the rear gardens.

Within the local area, you will find pleasant rural walks from the cottage that lead to Trevellas Cove. Perranporth is within a short drive, offering its famous 3 miles of golden sandy beach and an array of local shopping, public houses, schools, and sporting facilities. The village of St. Agnes is also not too far a drive, where you will find a wide selection of local shops, a choice of public houses, and nearby Trevaunance Cove with its sandy beach.
