The Cottage

Meadow Farm is a charming Cornish cottage situated on a quiet rural lane in the hamlet of Rose. Just a short distance from the coast, making it perfect for those seeking a peaceful rural or coastal property, away from the hustle and bustle of busy towns.

The cottage features spacious accommodation, including a large living room with a stone inglenook fireplace, a cozy sitting room, a kitchen/diner with a utility room, a ground-floor W.C., and three bedrooms along with a bathroom.

Having been in the family for over 150 years, this is the first time the property has come to the open market, as it has passed through generations of the current owner's family.

Outside, the property benefits from driveway parking and large gardens. The heating is provided by an oil-fired central heating system, and the inglenook fireplace features a charming wood burner, perfect for creating a cozy atmosphere during family evenings.

Rose is a small hamlet, located between the village of Goonhavern and the coastal retreat of Perranporth. Both offer a great array of shops, social, leisure and schooling facilities as well as restaurants, coffee shops, pubs and more. Perranporth also offers the stunning golden beach it's famed for and beautiful coastal walks.
