The Property

Located in the popular Mountside Road development, this well-presented, modern home features reverse accommodation and has been tastefully updated by the current owner. Recent improvements include a sleek, high-gloss white kitchen and a garage conversion, making it an ideal choice for those looking to move in with minimal work required.

Accommodation comprises a double bedroom with an ensuite, as well as a fourth bedroom or second living room on the ground floor. This versatile space includes a small kitchenette, allowing the ground floor to function as a self-contained living area if desired. Upstairs, the first floor offers two further double bedrooms, a family bathroom, a stylish kitchen/diner, and a bright, inviting living room with French doors leading out to the gardens.

To the outside of the home you have enclosed rear gardens that are laid out on two levels. The property also benefits from driveway parking for two cars

The coastal village of Par is highly regarded for its convenience and quality of life. It offers everything you need for day-to-day living, including a selection of supermarkets, coffee shops, pubs, and doctors' surgeries.

For those with an active lifestyle, Par provides excellent facilities such as an athletics and football club, cricket club, a choice of gyms, swimming pools, and access to beautiful beaches and coastal walks. Dog owners will also appreciate the woodland walks and the dog-friendly Par Beach, which welcomes pets year-round.
