The Railway Field

Camel Coastal & Country are delighted to offer the opportunity of this two acre site that lends itself redevelopment.

Set within the centre of the up and coming village of Goonhavern, the site is perfectly placed to develop a site with houses that provide great access into Newquay, Truro, Perranporth and to the A30.

Being a level site with 4 access points and building around, we believe this to be an amazing opportunity to those who are interested in developing a small estate or site with some executive family homes. Or a mixture of the two.

Currently the land doesn't have planning permission, and this is something any buyer would have to look to obtain once owning the site, however, this is reflected in the marketing price and truly is a great opportunity
