The Property

Located in a popular cul-de-sac location, overlooking open green space, this property represents the perfect opportunity to reside within Broadstone, taking advantage of local amenities and renowned local schools.

Upon entering the property there is an entrance hall within which there is a downstairs cloakroom. The hallway continues to the excellent lounge/dining room, which in turn continues via French doors to the rear garden. There is an updated, well appointed kitchen with integrated appliances.

From the first floor landing, there is a large master bedroom overlooking the rear garden. There are two further bedrooms, together with a recently updated, well appointed bathroom with shower bath. The master bedroom has a range of full width built in wardrobes and there is excellent storage throughout the house.

Externally, a driveway provides excellent parking and continues to a garage with up and over door, together with pitched tiled roof providing further storage. There is a south westerly facing garden with full width patio/entertaining area from where steps lead up to further areas of well stocked garden. At the top of the rear garden, there is a seating area providing extensive views and sunlight throughout the day.
