LOCATION

Flore lies on a south facing hillside positioned between the towns of Northampton (5 miles) and Daventry (7 miles away) with the heart of the old village sitting south of the A4500 Northampton ring road, but now benefits from a newly opened bypass. The village has two churches and a primary school which offers a link into Campion School, Bugbrooke for secondary education. Other amenities include a public house, general stores/post office and plant nursery which also incorporates children's petting farm, produce shop and café on a seasonal basis. Millennium Hall supports a variety of social activities including keep fit classes and 'The Floreboards' amateur dramatics group. Along with the river Nene running to the south of the village and the Grand Union canal to its left, Flore has excellent transportation links, M1 J16 is only 2 miles away and the A5 1 mile, as well as mainline rail services to London Euston and Birmingham New Street from either Northampton or Long Buckby stations.
