Hunters are delighted to bring this fully renovated and beautifully presented three bedroom detached bungalow to the sales market, complete with a freshly laid resin drive, secure garage and a landscaped private rear garden.

This exceptional and very well-presented property has a flexible layout to suit a wide range of buyers from a professional or retired couple wanting several reception rooms and a large family seeking four bedrooms utilising the large home office as a bedroom.

The property was fully renovated a couple of years ago and is a credit to the owners who have taken great care and attention to use the very best complimentary materials throughout the property. The accommodation includes:

INSIDE: The recessed entrance hall gives access to all rooms except the sunroom and the home office. Bedrooms one, two and three all face the front elevation with the large kitchen/breakfast room and the well-proportioned living room facing the rear. The family bathroom and separate w.c. are both centrally located. The Study/bedroom four is positioned just off the living room as is the wonderful 18' x 11' sunroom. This lovely additional room enjoys fabulous views of the rear garden and comes complete with a remote-controlled extending awning.

OUTSIDE: The rear garden enjoys a high degree of privacy and boasts of a well-managed layout consisting of a newly laid patio, well managed lawn area and close panel fence boundaries. To the front there is a very attractive new resin style drive which looks fantastic and is very low maintenance. The driveway leads to a private garage with its own mains power and light.

SUMMARY: We rarely announce 'this is the best property of its type' but on this occasion, it would be accurate. This bungalow has benefitted from a money-no-object refurbishment and is presented in a move-in condition, that will last for many years to come. We highly recommend this property.
