DESCRIPTION

What an opportunity! This house is a bit of a project and requires some modernisation, but the location is superb, and the property has masses of potential. Situated in a quiet, hidden away position, this house is accessed via a private lane which runs off Snatts Road. The house itself has off road parking and comprises of two double bedrooms on the first floor, as well as a lounge, shower room and kitchen/diner on the ground floor. Behind the house there is an interesting outbuilding which provided a range of options for use and could well be a stunning feature in the future. Another highlight of this particular house has to be the rear garden which is long than it appears in the photos, and which faces predominantly west so should get plenty of sun. Overall a great house with lots of potential and it has got the added bonus of being offered 'For Sale' with no chain.
