This wonderful, detached house offers deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over two floors and provides plenty of flexibility for how you may wish to live within it. There are a total of four bedrooms, three of which are situated on the ground floor, whilst the main bedroom is located upstairs benefitting from an en-suite bathroom. A modern second shower room is on the ground floor serving the other bedrooms. A noticeable feature of this delightful property is the impressive open-plan kitchen/diner boasting vaulted ceilings, wood floors, and rear wall comprising a large expanse of glass including bi-fold doors opening to the rear garden. A cosy double aspect lounge is the perfect area to unwind with the pleasure of enjoying a warming log burner during the colder months. A driveway to front provides off road parking for two cars, and the rear garden benefits from a great deal of privacy and seclusion with a wealth of trees and hedges. A patio and expanse of lawn make up the majority of the garden, and an exceptionally useful outbuilding to the rear has potential for multiple uses such as a gym, home office, or studio. The location of this property is central within the sought after village of Buxted that benefits from a mainline train station, two very popular pubs, local store, and many countryside walks whilst the larger town of Uckfield is only a short drive away.
