Previously a working dairy farm, this recently renovated stable block is now a beautiful modern home with large double bedrooms and open plan living areas that intertwine and flow seamlessly together across a generous footprint of versatile space. Initially converted in 2018 into a two-bedroom terrace house, it benefits now from a huge extension completed just a year ago that has added a third double bedroom, large modern family bathroom (with claw foot bath and attractive ceramic floor and wall tiles) huge open plan kitchen/lounge with wood burner and a separate dining room with bi-folding doors to the garden. There are a host of period features including high ceilings, original beams (in some rooms) and stunning parquet flooring throughout the hallways and living areas. All rooms are bright and airy due to the large number of skylight windows and there's a useful utility cupboard in the hallway for keeping the white goods out the kitchen. The newly refitted master bedroom is another impressive space with a gorgeous en-suite shower room, and the property comes with two allocated parking spaces at the front. The rear garden provides a generous lawned area enclosed by fencing and the tucked away location set down a long driveway is absolutely charming. Situated just a moments' drive from the village of Isfield and the towns of Uckfield and Lewes in either direction, the quiet semi-rural location is beautiful and surrounded by countryside. In conclusion this unique modern home is unlike anything we've ever seen and totally the better for it. Bright, spacious and impressively finished throughout, this is the easiest viewing recommendation we've had to make!!
