DESCRIPTION

This is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a spacious detached bungalow in a quiet part of town with a lovely private garden, garage and driveway. The property is in good cosmetic condition throughout and has potential to modernise in places which is likely to add value going forward. The property has excellent space which comprises a long entrance hall, large lounge/diner, kitchen, separate toilet and bathroom, three double bedrooms and an integral garage. The latter could be converted (subject to planning) for use as extra living space for example and the living area is sizeable enough to accommodate large sofa's, table and chairs and other furniture. All rooms feel bright and airy and the property has a lovely homely feel. The rear garden is another real highlight of the property with a good lawn and patio and new fencing down one side. Its also very private and the cul-de-sac location offers peace and quiet. Finally, the property is just a short walk from the high street shops, restaurants and railway station. Viewing comes recommended.
