Location

Blackford is a highly desirable area, located to south of Edinburgh City Centre and offers incredible walks through the nearby Braid Hills. Residents can enjoy far reaching views of the city and leafy surrounds within a short stroll of the property. Cameron Toll shopping centre is situated nearby and offers numerous supermarkets and shopping options. The popularity of the area is accounted for not only by its pleasant, quiet and leafy streets, but also by its convenient location for access to schools, local amenities and road links both in and out of town. Nearby Bruntsfield, Morningside and Newington provide a wealth of charming local shops, bars, cafes and restaurants, along with a cinema, theatre and a choice of supermarkets. The location is particularly convenient for access to the Edinburgh University's King's Buildings and the Royal Infirmary. Recreational facilities within easy reach include the open spaces of Blackford Hill and The Hermitage of Braid. The city bypass is a short drive away and provides easy links to the Scottish motorway network and Edinburgh International Airport. There are also excellent bus services which run to and from the city centre. The open spaces of the Meadows, Bruntsfield Links, Blackford Hill and the Hermitage are all close by.
