12 Old Street EC1

14-18

NUSA

RICE BOXES SOUPS

Located on the South side of Old Street, close to its junction with Sycamore Street and directly opposite Morelands, a Derwent London development.

The building has been completely refurbished to provide brand new CAT A offices and offers an ideal HQ opportunity.

This gothic-style property was built in 1876 and is Grade II Listed. The facade benefits from numerous original features, such as pointed arches, rich cornicing and ornamental detailing. The building totals 8,162 sq ft over lower ground, ground and four upper floors (plus mezzanine). There are high ceilings throughout and the ground floor has significant street frontage onto Old Street.

The property is surrounded by a vast array of restaurants, bars and coffee shops. The area is also popular with various creative businesses and is a stone's throw away from Clerkenwell Road, one of Europe's leading showroom destinations. Old Street Roundabout, where new emerging companies are situated amongst fast growing and established businesses is a short walk away.
