A Victorian classic two-bedroom flat in need of refurbishment.

Enter from the street through a raised, shared front garden. The communal ha leads you by stairs to the flat's first floor entrance. Once inside you will find a separate kitchen which faces rear with a large sash window, a bathroom and front aspect reception. A wide bay of sash windows peers down over the garden and there's an ornate period fireplace with decorative marble mantel. The first of the bedrooms shares the front spot with another sash window and picture rails. The second larger bedroom sits behind the reception with another period fireplace and plenty of room for both storage and a large double bed.

Central London is made easy with trains from Lewisham, or you can grab the DLR for Canary Wharf and more. Plenty of buses too to choose from (including lots of night routes).
