Silver Sands Court

Silver Sands Court was constructed by multi award-winning McCarthy & Stone purpose built for independent Retirement Living for those aged over 60 years. There is a House Manager on site to provide day-to-day support and a 24-hour emergency call system provided via a personal pendant alarm and with call points in the bathroom. This is a prestigious development with fantastic homeowner facilities including a stunning communal lounge, attractive landscaped gardens and a guest suite for visiting family and friends (additional charges apply). A car parking permit scheme applies, check with the House Manager for availability.

Silver Sands Court is located in 'up market' Bembridge, situated at the most easterly point of the Isle of Wight and is thought to be the largest village in England. It has long been regarded as a premier tourist destination. The village has three beaches, a harbour, the houseboats moored there are truly lovely. There is a RSPB nature reserve and lifeboat station, it even has it's own airport! The village centre hosts a number of independent
