WILLIAM PAGE COURT, BROAD STREET, BRISTOL

INTRODUCTION:

Constructed in 2016 by award-winning retirement home developers McCarthy Stone, William Page Court has a distinctive linear frontage opposite the attractive Page Park, it is a 'Retirement Living' development providing an independent lifestyle opportunity for those over 60 years of age with the peace-of-mind provided by the day-to-day support of our excellent House Manager who oversees the smooth running of the development. All apartments are equipped with a 24-hour emergency call facility and sophisticated intercom system providing both a visual and verbal link to the main development entrance. There is also the excellent guest suite widely used by visiting family and friends for which a small charge per night applies.

It's so easy to make new friends and to lead a busy and fulfilled life at William Page Court; there are always plenty of regular activities to choose from including; a fitness class, coffee mornings and afternoon teas, games and quiz nights, film nights, and occasional themed events. Whilst there is something for everyone there is certainly no obligation to participate and home owners 'dip in and out' of activities as they wish.

William Page Court enjoys excellent communal facilities including a fantastic homeowners lounge, pleasant landscaped gardens, laundry room and mobility scooter store.

THE LOCAL AREA:

Staple Hill is a vibrant suburb to the east of Bristol, which has a Victorian high street. The town centre boasts a variety of shops, cafes and pubs, as well as facilities such as the Staple Hill Library.

Staple Hill High Street is also close to the award-winning Page Park (which is opposite William Page Court) which has a sensory garden, café and community space, and hosts regular activities and events.

The Bristol and Bath Railway Path takes you into the centre of Bristol (or Bath) The Bristol Ring Road is close by and the area has regular bus services.
