Summary

Farringford Court is a Retirement Living Plus development, previously known as Assisted Living, constructed by McCarthy Stone. It is tailored specifically for those over 70 who wish to live independently but may require additional care and support.

An Estate Manager leads the team and manages the development. Each apartment features a fully equipped kitchen with an electric oven, cooker hood, integrated fridge, freezer, and ceramic hob. The bathrooms are fully fitted, and the master bedroom includes built-in wardrobes. A 24-hour emergency call system is provided through a personal pendant and call points in the bathroom.

The development boasts amenities such as a waitress-service restaurant, a 24-hour duty manager, a homeowners' lounge, a function room, a library, a laundry room, a mobility scooter store, a guest suite, and two elevators serving each floor.

Included in the service charge at Farringford Court is one hour of domestic support per week, with the option to purchase additional care and support packages. These packages can be as brief as 15 minutes per session and can be adjusted to meet individual needs. Farringford Court is registered with the Care Quality Commission.

A purchase requirement is that all residents must meet the minimum age criterion of 70 years.
