Triton House, Heene Road, Worthing

Development Overview

Within walking distance of the beach, Triton House is situated in Worthing, a traditional yet bustling seaside town with so much to do and see.

Triton House is a small Retirement Living development of just 33 one and two bedroom apartments, mirroring the community feel of the local town.

Many of the apartments have their own balconies, where you can enjoy a little peace and quiet with a cup of tea or perhaps a glass of wine. When wishing to socialise with your fellow residents, you'll have access to two luxurious communal lounges, one in Triton House and another in the neighbouring development, Neptune House. The spacious central gardens are another perfect place to enjoy peaceful summer evenings.

At Triton House the House Manager is on-site during office hours and there is a 24-hour call system in case of emergencies. For your safety and security, there's also a camera entry system linked with your television, so you can see who your guests are before they arrive at your door!

At Neptune House next door, there is bistro which you can make use of whenever you wish, and there is also a hair and nail salon for when you're in need of a little pampering.

For all your transport needs, near and far, the development has on-site car parking (subject to availability) and there are bus stops on either side of the road directly outside the development site. The bus routes take you into the town centre (just 0.4 miles from the development) and to the surrounding towns and villages. From Worthing train station (just over a mile away) you can reach Brighton in 20 minutes and London Victoria in 90 minutes.

The town centre itself has all the amenities you could ask for, including various supermarkets, high-street favourites and independent boutiques, and a wealth of pubs, cafes and eateries, as well as a doctor's surgery, several pharmacies and a leisure centre, to name but a few!
