Lido Grange, Sandy Lane, Prestatyn

Local area

Prestatyn is a gorgeous seaside town steeped in history. It is thought to have been occupied since prehistoric times and there are a range of caves dating to this period which are open to visit in the next village. Britain's longest ancient monument and national trail Offa's Dyke Path also joins the Wales Coast Path at Prestatyn and provides plenty of attractions for nature lovers. In addition, the sandy beaches and beautiful views of Gwaenysgor Hill are also to be enjoyed from the town. As well as a strong history and natural beauty, Prestatyn also provides many modern activities for homeowners to enjoy.

The Development

The development has been designed and constructed for modern living. The apartments boast Sky+ connection points in living rooms, walk in or fitted wardrobes in master bedrooms, camera video entry system for use with a standard TV, and for your peace of mind, 24-Hour emergency call systems. There are communal areas such as the homeowners' lounge, which is a great space for social events. For added convenience, there is a guest suite which visitors can book into for a small fee (usually around £25). The dedicated House Manager is on site during the day to take care of things and make you feel at home. There's no need to worry about the burden of maintenance costs as the service charge covers the cost of all external maintenance, gardening and landscaping, external window cleaning, buildings insurance, water rates, security and energy costs of communal areas. It is a condition of purchase that residents must meet the age requirement of 60 years or over.
