Hollis Court was purpose-built by McCarthy Stone for modern retirement living and comprises 49 stylish one and two-bedroom apartments exclusively for those aged 60 and over. Designed with comfort and peace of mind in mind, the development benefits from a dedicated House Manager and a 24-hour emergency call system, which includes personal pendant alarms and bathroom call points.

Ideally located on Castle Howard Road in the charming market town of Malton, Hollis Court enjoys a prime position within this vibrant community. Malton, often referred to as Yorkshire's food capital, lies just north of the River Derwent, which historically marked the boundary between the North and East Ridings of Yorkshire. On the opposite bank is the town of Norton, adding to the area's character and amenities.

Malton's town centre is home to a wonderful selection of traditional independent shops and boutiques. The recently revitalised marketplace now features a range of inviting coffee shops and cafés, complementing the town's established pubs and creating a lively and welcoming hub for residents and visitors alike.

For those who enjoy getting out and about, Hollis Court is well-connected. Malton bus station and railway station, both situated in nearby Norton-on-Derwent, provide excellent transport links with regular services to York, Leeds, Pickering, Whitby, Scarborough, and Bridlington, making both local travel and day trips a breeze.
