MANSIONHOUSE ROAD, EDINBURGH EH9 2JD

The subjects comprise an exceptional Victorian upper villa conversion, which forms part of the city's most prestigious, highly desirable locations. Properties in this street rarely come onto the open market due to the nature of these being family homes which tend to be passed on down through the generations. No 30 is no exception and has been a current wonderful home.

Internally, this home will not disappoint, with large, generously proportioned rooms which boast an abundance of natural light. The magnificent drawingroom is enhanced by an original marble fireplace with a feature wood burning stove, impressive centre rose, cornicing and a stripped pinewood floor. The family sized Dining kitchen which is ideal for informal entertaining has a feature gas fired stove and a separate Dining Hall with cupola, ideal for more formal family gatherings.

There are three substantial double bedrooms, a luxury family bathroom and separate additional showerroom. The clients have obtained planning permission for the provision of two en suites should this be desired by any prospective purchaser. Finally, a utility cupboard gives access to a generous, partially floored attic space.

GRANGE

The schooling options are first class, this property in the catchment for Sciennes Primary School and St Peter's RC Primary School, while James Gillespie's High School and St Thomas of Aquin's are the secondary options. There are also excellent fee paying schools nearby including George Heriot's, George Watson's and Merchiston Castle School and an excellent choice of pre-school nurseries.

Mansionhouse Road holds a distinguished status as one of the most desirable addresses within Edinburgh's Grange district. Dating back to the 19th century, this road epitomizes elegance and heritage. The Grange stands as one of Edinburgh's most esteemed residential areas, renowned for its Victorian and Georgian architectural homes. Situated in the heart of Edinburgh City Centre, the Grange is characterised by its picturesque streets, wide avenues and magnificent garden grounds.

The city centre is closeby, with Marchmont, Bruntsfield and Morningside offering a fantastic variety of amenities, including local artisan shops, Marks and Spencer, Tesco and a main Waitrose store. The Grange Medical Centre, dentists, hairdressers, beauticians, restaurants and not forgetting the famous Canny Man's pub which is an Edinburgh institution established in 1871.
