THE PROPERTY

This delightful cottage is situated in a well-connected village, featuring a picturesque rear garden that offers scenic views of the adjoining countryside. The property has been thoughtfully enhanced while preserving its original charm, boasting a breathtaking master bedroom with a vaulted ceiling and a Juliette balcony. Below, the generous integral garage presents excellent potential for conversion into additional living space, complemented by an adjoining carport that provides ample covered parking. The house benefits from double glazed windows including period style sealed unit double glazed windows to the front with additional secondary glazing to some for added efficiency and there's a plethora of character features throughout including original flagstone floors, beams and exposed stonework.

ACCOMMODATION

A traditional ledge and brace front door opens into a practical porch with hanging space, leading into a spacious sitting room that spans the front of the cottage. Originally two separate rooms, the space retains its character with fireplaces at each end—one of which remains functional, housing a wood-burning stove. The original flagstone flooring and exposed ceiling beams enhance the cottage's period charm.

Beyond, the kitchen and dining area exude a classic cottage feel while seamlessly incorporating modern essentials. Cream shaker-style units provide space for both a dishwasher and washing machine, along with an integrated microwave, electric oven, and hob. A handy pantry cupboard is neatly tucked under the stairs. A wide glazed door, along with additional French doors, connect the dining area to the garden room, which features sliding French windows and doors opening to the garden—allowing the entire space to be enjoyed as an open-air retreat in warm weather. Adjoining the garden room is a small, useful lobby and a downstairs cloakroom.

Upstairs, the landing offers a lovely view over the garden and surrounding fields. A period-style family bathroom sits to one side, featuring a double-ended spa bath with a traditional dual-head shower. A cleverly concealed linen cupboard is discreetly hidden behind a wall mirror for additional storage and the room is finished with pretty tiling from the V&A collection.

At the end of the landing, a stunning master suite has been created from the former hayloft, boasting a Juliette balcony that floods the space with natural light while showcasing picturesque countryside views. Exposed stone walls and beams preserve the room's character, complemented by a stylish en-suite shower room. With enough space for a cozy chair or sofa, this room provides a peaceful retreat at any time of day.

The first floor also includes two generously sized double bedrooms and a fourth, smaller bedroom—ideal for use as a home office.

OUTSIDE

The property is accessed via Davids Lane, with a lawned front garden bordered by a low stone wall with mature shrubs and clipped evergreen Magnolia. A small driveway in front of the integral garage and a further gated driveway to the side, offering generous access to the undercover parking area and garden beyond. The garage, with double doors at both the front and rear, is believed to have originally served as a Wheelwright's workshop. Equipped with power and lighting, it presents excellent potential for incorporation into the existing living space, subject to the necessary consents and modifications.

A true highlight of the property is the beautifully maintained rear garden, which enjoys a north-westerly aspect making the most of the afternoon and evening sunshine. At its heart, a central lawn is framed by pebble-edged borders, a block-paved patio, and a seating area ideal for outdoor dining. Along one side, a raised flower bed showcases a variety of ornamental trees, including acers and clipped conifers, complemented by cottage garden perennials and seasonal bulbs.

In one corner, the former privy has been repurposed as a wood store, while an adjoining timber bothy—featuring charming stained-glass panels—provides a peaceful, shaded retreat during the summer months. Toward the rear, a slightly elevated area accommodates a summerhouse beside an additional seating space, creating the perfect spot for a bench to take in the picturesque views and evening sunsets.
