ACCOMMODATION

This characterful detached residence benefits from a new roof (approx. 18 months ago), double glazing, and oil central heating. The internal accommodation briefly comprises: an entrance hallway, triple aspect lounge, sitting room with an exposed stone wall, kitchen/diner, utility room, rear lobby, cloakroom, and store room to the ground floor. Upstairs is a family bathroom, a separate WC, and four generously sized bedrooms - the primary bedroom with its own en-suite shower room, all accessed from the impressive landing.

Externally, the property benefits from landscaped gardens to the front, side, and rear aspects, with an outbuilding and greenhouse within these gardens. Accessed through some double wooden gates, or from its own entrance from the road is the remainder of the land which spans just under 14 acres. The majority of this land is laid to pasture and is enclosed with wooden and electric fences, with two triple stable blocks at either end of the land, in addition, there are numerous outbuildings, most notably an open barn/store, workshop and a large wooden chalet (in need of repair) - ideal for guests. There is also an orchard and approximately 1 acre of woodland on the northern perimeter.

Please see our video tour for an overview of the land and the property.

LOCATION

The rural community of Stolford is approximately 7 miles to the north-west of Bridgwater, just over a mile away from Hinkley Point Power Station, and is very close to the coast and Steart Bay which is well known for its bird life.

The nearest facilities can be found in the pretty Somerset village of Stogursey, with Combach also nearby, both offering primary schools, basic shopping facilities and public houses. Please note: This property located just over a mile away from Hinkley Point Power Station.

The market town of Bridgwater offers a range of amenities, shopping and leisure facilities, together with two junctions of the M5 Motorway and also a mainline train station. The county town of Taunton is also within reach over the Quantock Hills to the south.
