The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A well presented semi detached bungalow situated in the popular coastal village of Aberporth. Within walking distance of the two beautiful sandy beaches and amenities. The market town of Cardigan is also just approximately 7.5 miles away. Benefitting from oil central heating, two double bedrooms and a garden to the front and rear, this property would make a lovely home.

The accommodation briefly comprises: an entrance hallway with built in handy storage cupboards. A living area with feature fireplace, there is a further reception room with sliding doors leading to the conservatory which overlooks the rear garden allowing lots of light into the property. The kitchen benefits from matching fitted wall and base units and a door leading to the front. There is a shower room and two double bedrooms, one of which with built in wardrobes.

Externally, to the front of the property there is a lawned area with a driveway to the left offering off road parking for approximately two vehicles. The rear garden is accessed through the conservatory and is laid mainly to lawn, with a raised decking area. The perfect spot to sit and relax.

The sea side village of Aberporth is located 6.5 miles North-east of Cardigan. Originally a fishing village Aberporth boasts two sandy beaches, one of which is open to dog walking all year round and both are popular beaches for swimming, surfing and sailing. Rock pools are exposed at low tides and the famous bottle nose dolphins of Cardigan Bay are frequent visitors to this picturesque bay. The Ceredigion Coastal Path runs through the village making this a popular venue with walkers. The village benefits from; a primary and two nursery schools, several beach cafes, a community hall, a pub serving good food throughout the day, and chip takeaway, chemist & post office and a village shop.
