The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A beautifully presented traditional cottage situated in the popular coastal village of St Dogmaels, just a short drive to Poppit sands and within walking distance of the estuary. This wonderful Grade II listed cottage was built in the early 19th century and has a whitewashed rubble wall to the front with hornless 12 pane sash windows and centre ledged door all with recessed stone voussoirs above. Currently utilised as a holiday let, making it a great investment opportunity.

The property is full of character and charm, briefly comprising, a living area with log burning stove, the door to the front is a stable door - offering great views of the countryside when open. A step from the living area leads to the kitchen diner, where there are fitted base units. The dining area has a feature inglenook fireplace with log burning stove. The staircase leads to the first floor where there is a double bedroom with A-frame wooden beams, and a bathroom.

Externally, steps to the front of the property lead to a lovely garden area with a border of wild flowers and views overlooking the estuary. To the side there is a handy storage area for logs/bins. Below and offset to the side of the property there is off road parking for two vehicles. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate what the property has to offer.

St Dogmaels is a beautiful riverside village sitting just across the Teifi River from the market town of Cardigan. St Dogmaels is steeped in history with the ruins of the 12th century Abbey at its heart. The Abbey offers a great venue in the summer for Shakespearean plays and the village offers many cafes and pubs, local shops, places of worship and a primary school. The nearby sandy beach of Poppit Sands is the start (or end) of the 186 mile long Pembrokeshire Coastal Path. Nearby Cardigan town offers a range of amenities including; a Castle, a primary and secondary school, a further education college, major super markets and superstores, several public houses, leisure centre, restaurants and coffee shops and many local shops.
